

OXFORD CO. ADVERTISER.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1882.

[Entered as Second Class mail matter.]

TERMS: $1.50 per year. When paid in advance $1.25. All papers sent out of the county must be paid for in advance.

Address: S. DRAKE & CO., Prop's. Norway, Me.

A Word to Voters.

Next Monday is election day. Every man is expected to be at the polls and cast his vote. This is the sovereign right of citizenship and should not be lightly considered. No one has the right to say how you shall vote, or for whom you shall vote. That should be determined by you regardless of whom it may please or displease, only be convinced yourself that the ticket suits you and represents the candidates you want elected. The voter is the one to be suited and not the candidates or claimants of your suffrage. See to it then, that your ticket is what you want, and that you vote knowingly and intelligently.

The man that offers you money, office, work or favors, or in any way attempts to influence you at the polls commits a crime and he who accepts these overtures are equal partners in that crime. Remember this. Should any man have the hardihood to attempt to buy your vote he is a criminal and at your mercy. Take the money and expose the man and thus save yourself from becoming a partner in guilt. This you have a perfect right to do. The money in your possession is evidence of the attempted transaction.

Whitehead and Apple Trees.

For years the name of T. J. Whitehead, of Paris, has been associated with nursery trees. He has sold hundreds of trees and knows the business well. Mr. W. has many curious notions but on apple trees his head is level every time. He knows all about them, or at least a great deal that some people don't know. He can talk any man into the belief that he should set out fruit trees and as there is a profit in them. Now many fruit dealers do not practice what they preach but this cannot be said of Mr. Whitehead. His practice is in keeping with his preaching. He believes that the raising of fruit pays and therefore he sets out trees.

We recently inspected the young orchard that Mr. W. set out last spring. He set in one field some 360 trees and on his farm in different places enough to make about 400 trees all told. Among the varieties he has the Mann, McIntosh Red, Russett, Wallbridge, Wagner, Golden Russett, Fall Waters, etc.

All the trees are looking nice and healthy and Mr. W. says he has not lost a single tree from the lot. This is a little remarkable. Many of the trees had made a large growth. Some of them were slow in starting and were they not properly cared for would have died and never put forth a bud. These trees were doctored by Mr. W. and brought out all right. The particular medicine used was paper and water. Those trees that did not leave out at the proper time were wound in paper and the paper was occasionally wet with water. This kept the bark cool and moist and enabled the scant amount of sap in them to circulate and burst the buds, otherwise the trees would have died. The fact that Mr. Whitehead set out some four hundred trees and never lost one is a good commentary on the trees he handles or on his method of setting out and caring for them. We predict that it is a little of both.

Probably this is the greatest number of trees set out by any one man in the town of Paris last spring. Mr. W. intends to keep planting trees until his orchard numbers a thousand or more trees. Mr. W. firmly believes that there is a profit in fruit culture.

On one of the trees of the Wealthy variety, which was set out this year is an apple that measures some six inches in circumference and is a perfect specimen. This is of very rare occurrence. The Wealthy is considered a very early bearer.

These trees were set out very carefully. Large holes were dug and a prepared compound was mixed with the earth and the roots of the trees were carefully pruned and nicely bedded. We presume that Mr. Peter Frost claims the credit for setting these trees. The work was done well.

Mr. W. has recently set out several varieties of pears, grapes, quinces, currants, blackberries and other small fruit. In a few years we doubt not he will reap a harvest and gladden the heart of the printer with a liberal donation.

The Dirigo Rural of Bangor, is the Grange organ and a good agricultural and family paper. It is carefully edited and contains what is of interest to the husbandman whether he belongs to the Grange or not. Sent to any address one year for $1.50 or in clubs at a reduction. Send for a sample.

Representative Nominations.

In the district composed of Norway, Waterford, Albany, Stoneham, H. M. Pearce, Esq., is on the republican ticket and John A. Bolster is the fusion candidate.

In the Summer classification, Solomon F. Stetson, republican and Hiram S. Coburn fusionist have received the nomination.

Paris, Greenwood and Milton will elect either Geo. A. Wilson of South Paris, republican, or C. B. Benson of Paris, fusionist.

Dixfield, Rumford, Bryon, Roxbury, Mexico, Woodstock and Hanover district have Wm. H. Pearson of Hamilton's Grant, fusionist, and Randall L. Taylor of Roxbury, republican, nominated.

Chas. E. Hubbard and Samuel Wadsworth republican and fusionist respectively, both of Hiram, are nominated in the district composed of Hiram, Denmark, Lovell and Sweden.

In the Fryeburg district the republicans have nominated Mr. Abbott of Stow and the fusionists Stephen Chandler of the same town.

In the Bethel district M. Kimball will run on the republican ticket and Asa A. West on the fusion ticket.

Andover.

The drouth is getting severe. There was a light shower Sunday night.

Mr. M. F. Corson has rented part of the stand occupied by L. M. Howe, Esq., at the village.

Some of our citizens interested in politics attended the meeting at the Norway Fair grounds last Friday.

Top raisers are "picking hops." In some fields the yield is good while in others it is light. The high prices for which they are selling make hops a bonanza for those who are fortunate enough to have them.

Misses Emma and Ella Perkins of Marblehead, Mass., are visiting their Andover friends.

The farmers have sold part of their surplus stock. The principal buyer, John Philbrook, Esq., of Bethel, took out the first drouth Sept. 1.

Mr. H. S. Philbrick and wife have been visiting friends in Wayne.

A little daughter of L. R. Hall is quite sick.

The mercury indicated 110° in the sun at 8 o'clock, p. m., Sept. 2.

Miss Addie F. Poor is visiting Boston.

A new bridge is being built over the Ellis at Happy Hollow, otherwise known as Chapman mill.

Bolster's Mills.

Rev. Alpha Morton, pastor of the Congregational Church in Wells, is spending his vacation with Miss Juliette, Mrs. James Lovell, and other friends in Otisfield and vicinity.

John C. Fernald, a Boston merchant, is visiting his relatives in Otisfield and Harrison.

The family of Mr. Guley of Portland, after spending two or three weeks at the residence of Moors Hancock, have returned to their home.

Miss Rosie Chute left this place last Monday to attend the Normal School at Gorham.

The fall term of school here commenced last Monday with Miss Juliette Whitehouse, of Sweden, as principal, and her sister as assistant. Miss W. is a graduate of Bridgton High School and of Gorham Normal Institute. She has taught the school in this place two or three times, and is one of the best teachers ever employed in this district.

Freeland Howe, Esq., of Norway, and A. Nutting of Otisfield, have been closing up the business of the Otisfield M. Ins. Co., placing the risks in Stock Companies.

Samuel Reed of Otisfield, has a son who is very sick with typhoid fever.

John D. Osgood of Raymond, after a long and painful illness, died on the 27 day of August. Mr. Osgood has been confined to his bed nearly two years during which time he has been unable to feed himself. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. B. Lovell, at the late residence of Mr. Osgood. Mr. Lovellwell attended the funeral of three men who have died in that house within a few years, each of whom died on the 27 day of the month.

The members of Lakeside Grange and of Crooked River Grange had a grand picnic gathering last Saturday on the grounds of S. H. Davies of Harrison. It was greatly enjoyed by all present.

N. C. Pinkham has moved from the "Stuart" mansion into Mrs. Turner's house, opposite the grist mill.

James S. Green has gone to Freeport to take charge of Barker's corn cutting machines used in the corn shops of that place.

F. H. Pike has been to Boston to attend to business connected with his sale-work.

Paris Hill.

The Democrat says: H. Morrell and wife of Gardiner were at the Hubbard House, last Friday and Saturday. Mr. Morrell is editor of the Gardiner Home Journal. He is interested in the Mt. Mansfield Convention, and the exhibition of gems—Orville D. Baker of Augusta, spent a couple of days in our village last week. The Academy in charge of G. L. Dunham, has 35 scholars.—Dr. A. S. Thayer and wife are spending the Sabbath in Paris.

Dr. A. C. Hamlin and wife of Bangor are spending some time with S. B. Carter, Esq., and attended the exhibition of the Boston Police Corps, accompanied by his wife and Mrs. Lieut. Thurston, of the U. S. N., have been guests at Mrs. Giles's the past few days.—Services were resumed at the Universalist church last Sabbath.—Mr. Joseph King of King & Dexter, Portland, is in town with his family.—Miss Salie Crocker the artist is visiting Mrs. T. T. Snow.—Rev. Caleb Dyer, a native of Paris spent the Sabbath in town. A large party went to the Camp Meeting at Mechanic Falls, Sunday, in Rawson's big team.

Oxford.

At the Cey railroad crossing, in Oxford, Saturday afternoon, Orin Bryant attempted to cross the track ahead of the Montreal express. The train struck his horse, cutting him completely in twain, and deposited the remains beside the fence. The wagon was smashed, and Mr. Bryant had an arm injured. The train man gave the usual whistles, and made every effort to stop the train.—Journal.

Sweden.

Mr. Matthias Bidlon is very sick with dysentery, and little hope of his recovery is entertained. Mr. Bidlon is six years old and has been lame and feeble for several years. He is the oldest man in town.

C. O. Brown and wife went to Gorham, N. H., last Friday to visit relatives in that place.

Mrs. Conkey from Mass. is here visiting her sister, Mrs. John Evans. We think it is very dry here, but people from other towns tell us we know nothing about drouth here, and are highly favored. If we really are in ignorance now in regard to drouth we prefer to remain so rather than have any further experience to enlighten us in that direction.

They are hard up for water at the steam mill and will be out entirely if rain does not come plentifully and soon. They have considerable oak to saw yet, which must be sawn as soon as possible to fulfill contracts, and they will run the mill if they have to haul the water in hogsheads for a few days.

West Paris.

Mrs. Thomas Dunham of Spots Falls, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. O. A. Holden of Malden, Mass., after which they will spend a short time at Nantasket Beach.

South Waterford.

Nature is very much revived here. A grand rain Sunday night.

Those that have been on the sick list are much improved.

Miss Josie Gerry is at home from Philadelphia, also Miss Clara Perry, Miss Perry has been absent over a year in Boston.

Wanted, a pure cream white hat for Mr. P. M.

Mr. F. A. Noble no doubt has the best field of drouth in this town. Hope when he goes down East he will take his dog along with him. Those melons, how delicious and tempting they look. Just a hundred of them.

Persons have been inspecting our water privilege for the purpose of locating a site for a woolen mill for the manufacture of cloth. The expectation of the continuance of the Bridgton Narrows is what brings them here. They ought to know something about the road, as they have stock in the same. We almost hear the whistle. We do, for breakfast.

When to Stop Advertising.

When every man has become so thoroughly a creature of habit that he will certainly buy this year where he bought last year.

When a stranger, fresher and spunkier concerns in your line cease starting up and using the newspapers in telling the people how much better they can do for them than you can.

When nobody else thinks it pays to advertise.

When population ceases to multiply, and the generations that crowd on after you stop coming on.

When you have convinced everybody whose life will touch yours that you have better goods and lower prices than they can ever get at any place outside your store.

When you perceive it to be the rule that they never do, and never did, advertise are outstripping their neighbors in the same line of business.

When men stop making fortunes right in your sight, solely by a discreet use of this mighty agent.

When you can forget the words of the shrewdest and most successful business men concerning the main cause of their prosperity.

When you would rather have your own way and fail, than take advice and win.

Gould's Academy.

The visitor at Bethel is met at once with the sight of the new and attractive building, to be known as Gould's Academy. To those who were scholars in the old Academy, the thought of a change brought feelings of sadness for every nook and corner was full of tender associations, and every room crowded with sweet memories.

The voices that began to sing as we walked the familiar grounds or sat beneath the elms, and it always seemed as though we most look for the hurrying steps of our old time teacher as the bell rang out its call. But the old building crowded within and without with the finger marks of those who today are scattered over the wide world, have found their rest in so many a church-yard, or on so many a battlefield, is among the things of the past. It was with feelings akin to mourning the departure of an old friend, that we wended our way up the path, to inspect the new and beautiful building erected by the energetic board of trustees, and thoroughly equipped after the most modern requirements. The plan was furnished by Mr. C. Foster, Esq., the architect, and the building erected under the direction of Samuel Philbrook, Esq., S. B. Twichell, Esq., G. A. Hastings, Esq., and Hon. David Foster, Jr., members of the board of trustees.

The main room was furnished with single seats for one hundred and thirty-two scholars and with blackboard space on three sides. Leading off from this is the recitation room, neatly furnished. The rooms above are all arranged with especial reference to the wants and comfort of the teachers and scholars.

The building is of wood and cost about five thousand dollars. The furnishing called for an additional outlay of fifteen hundred dollars which was raised by subscription among the citizens of the town and friends of the town and friends of the school. The term will commence Aug. 30th, under the charge of Prof. H. W. Johnson of Woburn, Mass., an experienced teacher, who will have a full corps of assistants. The indications are that there will be a large number in attendance, and that Gould's Academy is again to take its place in the front ranks with the other institutions of the State.

The Governor of Texas has called for aid for the sufferers by yellow fever.

The 10th exhibition of the N. E. Agricultural Society is in session at Worcester, Mass.

There was a great labor demonstration in New York city, Thursday. 20,000 people paraded the streets.

Trouble has broken out in Corea, and a Chinese army of 15,000 men has been sent out into that province. The plague is epidemic in some parts of Japan.

Col. Ingersoll began his argument Tuesday, in the Star route cases. The court room was crowded with the friends of the defendants. Attorney General Brewster was present and listened attentively to the argument.

The report is again started that President Arthur will certainly be married this fall, and that the day has been determined upon.

John B. McMahon of Wheeling, W. Va., patented an improvement to a hitching strap in July last. He has already cleared over $15,000 on the invention.

The mill mills in Massachusetts vicinity have been compelled to stop part of their machinery for want of water, and the production is now barely enough to meet the demand.

Fifteen lives are lost on the British coasts each week on an average; and thus in 26 years about 20,000 have perished, chiefly in the occupation of fishing.

The funeral of "Chip" Smith, who was hanged in New Haven on Friday, took place Sunday, and 10,000 persons attended the services.

A dashing Chicago widow at the Saratoga races has wagered a box of cigars against a span of thoroughbreds, and won. She now is more dashing than ever.

A Dresden firm is making watch cases of metal. The paper is made in such a manner as to be almost as serviceable as metal, particularly when it has a metallic ring; and the invention will bring watches within the means of the peasant.

A new planetoid of the twelfth magnitude was discovered August 22d.

Senator Hill's physicians say that the cancer which killed him was caused by tobacco.

Human footprints nineteen inches long have been discovered in Nevada rocks.

The Sioux are reported to be preparing for an attack upon the whites in Dakota and Montana.

The British army medical department reports that black troops suffer much more than white troops from the evil influences of the tropical climates.

Among the curiosities which will be on exhibition at the convention of firemen to be held in Cincinnati is a hand-worked fire engine made in England before the Revolutionary war. It did excellent service for three-fourths of a century in Boston.

Some boys at Tucson, Texas, undertook to make a statue, and their plan for getting a mould was to cover a playmate's face thick with mud. They tried it, giving the subject no breathing holes, and he was suffocated so nearly to death that the doctors had great difficulty in saving him.

Alexander H. Stephens has completed his history of the United States, the final proof sheets having been revised and returned to the printer. It is a complete history of this country down to Senator Hill's death.

Dr. Siemens calculates that the present annual yield of all the coal mines of the earth would suffice to keep up the fire of the sun, at its present intensity of light and heat, for about the forty millionth part of a second.

Spritsmen from the United States are obliged to pay a license of $20 for the privilege of shooting in the Dominion of Canada.

The editor of the Key West Democrat is said to be only forty inches high and weighs thirty-five pounds. When the man with the club comes in to interview "the chap who wrote that article," the editor of the Democrat crawls into his past-pot and pulls down the lid.—Commercial Advertiser.

Monroe Chief has been matched against Von Armin for $2500 a side, and the race will take place at Midnapolis, Minn., the coming week.

Michael Donohue of Brooklyn, N. Y., has issued a challenge to wrestle any man in Canada or the United States, collar and elbow, for $250 and the light-weight championship of America.

A number of Saratoga gentlemen are desirous of backing John A. Kennedy against Courtney for $1500 or $2000 a side, the race to take place at Saratoga, lake in three or four weeks.

John S. Prince has accepted the challenge of W. Morgan for a bicycle race of 100 miles. Prince offers Morgan a start of one mile, and will run for $200, the race to take place either at Beacon Park, or at the polo grounds, New York.

The match announced to take place at Greenville, Pa., August 28, for $2,000 in which V. C. Place, the bicyclist, was to ride fifty miles against the pacing horse Ben Hamilton, owned by A. J. Hays, did not come off, owing to the intervention of the Humane Society.

Rhode Island is a little State, and ex-Governor Sprague knew it when he rose in rebellion against it. It was a cowardly proceeding on the governor's part.—Boston Advertiser.

L. L. Howard, Jr.

WOULD like to say to those wishing CEMENT WORK, that he has added the GRANITE BUSINESS, and with the Granite and Marble united, and a number of years' experience, believes that he is able to give them as good work, and at lower prices than any one in Oxford County. He does not believe in cut, and he will tell you the reason why.

He employs no agent, but if parties wishing work will drop him a card, he will call and see them, and give them the benefit of his own experience.

In short, he wishes to say that he will make every effort to give those who employ him their money's worth.

POLISHED GRANITE a specialty. Or anything in the Cemetery line, furnished. L. L. HOWARD, JR. Norway, Me., July 7, 1882.

K. R.—No business from sunset Friday, to sunset Saturday.

REMEMBER THE Adams & Westlake Wire-Gauze, Non-Explosive OIL STOVES.

Bake better, Boil quicker, and Broil faster than any Oil or Gas stove. Manufactured, and was awarded the Gold Medal at the ATLANTA EXPOSITION for "Safety, great variety and perfect arrangement of the heating and cooking apparatus." This award was made over a contest with Coal, Oil, Gas and Vapor Stoves.

These Stoves took the HIGHEST AWARD of Paris, France, Exposition, Cincinnati, Ohio, do. 1879. Toronto, Canada, do. 1879. Worcester, Mass., do. 1880. BRONZE MEDAL at World's Fair, Melbourne, Australia, 1880.

HIGHEST AWARD at Industrial Exposition, Providence, R. I., 1881. GOLD MEDAL at International Cotton Exposition at Atlanta, Ga. 1881.

Don't fail to see the Wire-Gauze, Non-Explosives in operation, at J. O. CROCKETT'S Hardware Store, opposite the recent Great Fire in Norway Village.

Also a large stock of HARDWARE, Cutlery, Hayting Tools, and other seasonable goods, for sale at lowest prices. J. O. CROCKETT.

Norway, June 20, 1882.

AT COST! Now is the time! This is the place!

Ladies avail yourselves of this opportunity. You may never have a chance to purchase goods at such bargains again.

As my store is to undergo thorough repairs this fall, I offer my entire stock of Millinery at Cost during the remainder of the summer, in order that I may reduce the same.

Don't think this is mere talk; I mean just what I say.

Remember the time is now! The place, the store! Mrs. A. B. CHASE, Beal's Block, Norway, Me.

BARGAINS IN HAMMOCKS Croquet Sets, at Crockett's Drug Store.

READ THE Lewiston Gazette.

The Democratic Paper of the Old 2nd District.

Is a large eight-page weekly and contains all the news of the week, and is a specialty of State News. It is unwaveringly Democratic in principle, and an uncompromising opponent of monopoly in all its forms.

What the Press says of it.—"The Lewiston Gazette is one of the best papers coming to our table."—Boston Post. "One of the ablest and brightest newspapers in Maine."—Portland Free Press. "A most excellent newspaper."—Portland Argus. "One of the brightest and best newspapers in the State."—Bangor Commercial. "One of the very best in the State."—Somerset Reporter. "One of the ablest papers that comes to our table."—Bangor Journal. "One of our best Maine weekly exchanges."—Bangor Age. "Amongst our best Democratic exchanges."—Farmington Herald. "The Gazette is an ably conducted journal, and we always find in its pages with the certainty of finding something worth reading."—Rockland County. "A most ably edited and ranks among our best Democratic exchanges."—Andover Advocate. "One of the most readable State papers."—Phillips Photograph. "Sharp as a two edged sword."—Watson's Illuminator.

OXFORD, S. D.—Probate Court, at Paris, August Term, A. D. 1882.

On the petition of LUCINDA A. BARTLETT, widow of Luther B. Bartlett, late of Greenwood, in said county, deceased, praying that her widow may be set out to her from the real estate of said deceased.

ORDERED, That the said Petitioner give notice to all persons interested, by causing a copy of this order to be published three weeks successively in the Oxford County Advertiser, printed at Norway, that they may appear at a Probate Court to be held at Paris, in said county, on the third Tuesday of September next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, and show cause, if any they have, why the same should not be granted. R. A. FRYE, Judge.

Attest:—H. C. DAVIS, Register.

A GREAT CAUSE OF HUMAN MISERY IS THE LOSS OF MANHOOD.

A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment, and Radical Cure of Syphilis, Gonorrhea, Indolent, Nervous Debility, and Impediments to Marriage generally; Consumption, Epilepsy, and Rupture, Mental and Physical Incapacity, &c. By ROBERT J. CLEVELAND, M.D., author of the "Green Book," &c.

The world-renowned author from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually relieved, and that dangerous surgical operations, blagues, instructions of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands. Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post-paid, on receipt of six cents, or two postage stamps. Address THE CLEVELAND MEDICAL CO., 41 Ann St., New York, N. Y.

Post Office Box 450.

Cool Soda! AT CROCKETT'S DRUG STORE.

WANTED! Good steady men to work in the NORWAY TANNER!

No one looking for a soft job need apply. Wages depend on amount of work done. JOHN L. HORNE & SON, Norway, Aug. 18, 1882.

JOEL S. FROST & SON, Freight Carriers and Job Teaming! Residence and Stable on Water Street, Norway.

Your work is solicited.

95

95

95

95

95

95

95

95

95

95

OXFORD CO. ADVERTISER.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 8, 1882.

TERMS: $1.50 per year. When paid in advance $1.25. All papers sent out of the county must be paid for in advance.

Address: S. DRAKE & CO., Prop's. Norway, Me.

Next Monday is election day. Every man is expected to be at the polls and cast his vote. This is the sovereign right of citizenship and should not be lightly considered.

The man that offers you money, office, work or favors, or in any way attempts to influence you at the polls commits a crime and he who accepts these overtures are equal partners in that crime.

Remember this. Should any man have the hardihood to attempt to buy your vote he is a criminal and at your mercy. Take the money and expose the man and thus save yourself from becoming a partner in guilt.

This you have a perfect right to do. The money in your possession is evidence of the attempted transaction.

NEWS OF THE DAY

GENERAL ITEMS.

New York papers tell the story of a man who was kept in the Asylum on Ward's Island for five years, although it is alleged that he was in his right mind after he had been there a month. Four new cases of yellow fever are reported at Pensacola, and two deaths.

A party of three persons have ascended the highest peak of Mount Ararat.

During August the United States national debt was reduced about $16,000,000.

Lizzie Selden, the Brooklyn child who was kidnapped, was found on Thursday in a tenement house at No. 122 Park avenue, Brooklyn, in a room with her abductor, who is a young woman named Maggie Keppel. Maggie has been several times arrested for petty thieving, and is said to be of a malicious disposition, but weak minded.

She was committed for trial without bail.

Captain Payne, the leader of the invasion of the Indian Territory, has been imprisoned, with several of his companions.

Comptroller Campbell's annual report shows the gross debt of the City of New York on July 31 to have been $186,588,807.50.

Confederate bonds are again being bought up at Richmond, Va. As high as $7.50 per $1,000 has been paid for them.

The fall trade has begun unusually early, indicating remarkable prosperity from one end of the country to the other. All the trades in New York City are preparing for a great rush of customers.

The coinage made at the United States Mint in Philadelphia during the month of August amounted in value to $2,582,322.50.

The Hotel Brunswick, at Old Orchard Beach, Me., was destroyed by fire. The guests saved their lives by jumping from the second and third story windows.

There were 23,185 immigrants landed at Castle Garden, New York, last month, and 842,518 since January 1.

The great flood disaster in West Texas was a sad affair. The towns of Concho, San Angelo, and Ben Rich, were the principal points in the storm center. Every conceivable species of property, including all kinds of drowned live stock, floated past Concho and San Angelo from the hundreds of miles of tributaries to the river for three days. The loss of life is appalling. It is now known that 130 persons were drowned, and it is found that even this does not include all the lost. While many of the lost lives were Mexicans, nearly one half were settlers from the other States. There is much suffering among the survivors, whose little fortunes have been swept away so suddenly.

The Michigan Republican State Convention, at Kalamazoo, nominated David H. Jerome for Governor.

R. H. Adams, of New York City, who is engaged in the silk trade, has suspended payment. His liabilities are estimated at $750,000.

While a citizen was driving in a buggy near Bangor, Me., he was intercepted by two highwaymen, who fired at, wounded, and robbed him of $480.

Previous reports of the great destruction of life and property by the floods in Texas are confirmed.

The fishing operations at Newfoundland and vicinity have been far from successful during the past season.

Three factories and three dwellings were destroyed at Haverhill, Mass., Friday. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

Apaches are reported as having committed many murders of whites in Sonora, Mexico, and then escaping into Arizona.

One hundred and eleven Russian refugees left Philadelphia by the steamship Indiana on Wednesday for Liverpool.

At Chicago, on Monday, Richard Wilson, a Scotchman, shot his wife, through jealousy, and then killed himself.

It has been decided that the remains of Miss Fanny Parnell shall remain in the United States.

A man delivered himself to the police at Brockville, Ont., on Monday, saying that he was a "crazy" man, and moved three men in the Grosvenor Hotel, London, England, about five years ago.

An excursion train near Toledo, Ohio, was boarded on Sunday by men with drawn revolvers who robbed and maltreated the passengers.

Instructions have been issued for the transfer to the Mint at Philadelphia for recoinage of the uncurrent subsidiary silver held in the various depositories. There are about $500,000 of these coins, including 3, 5 and 20 cent silver pieces.

By a boiler explosion in Green County, Ohio, two men were instantly killed and another fatally injured.

According to the official report, the number of cases of yellow fever at Brownsville, Texas, has increased somewhat during the past week.

The wife of a lawyer at Leland, Ill., shot her husband and then herself. In both cases death ensued at once. The motive is unknown.

A terrible disaster is reported from Texas. The town of Ben Franklin has been washed away by a freshet, with a reported loss of forty lives. Most of the victims were Mexicans.

Syrian magnates dread that there is any danger of a Mussulman rising against Christians in Syria or Palestine.

Greece is displaying increased activity in view of the military disturbances on the Turkish frontier.

A banquet is to be given to M. de Lesseps in Paris.

Engineer Malville, of the Jeannette, has left Paris for Liverpool. Lieutenant Berry, of the Rodgers, will remain in Paris a few days.

Chert Pasha has forbidden persons having no visible occupation from landing at Alexandria.

The Corporation of Cork condemn Mr. R. Dwyer Gray's sentence and demand his release.

The cotton crop in Egypt is suffering from the want of irrigation.

AFAIRS IN EGYPT.

What is Being Done by the English Government in Africa.

An official dispatch from Manila, Philippine Islands, states that 300 deaths from cholera occurred there on Monday last. Two hundred and ninety-four of the victims were natives.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg states that the Siberian plague is appearing to an alarming extent in the widely separated quarters of European Russia.

On Sunday morning Turkish troops attacked the Greeks all along the frontier from Zorbas to Degani. The fighting was continued Tuesday. The Greeks lost four killed and ten wounded.

Telegrams from Corea state that the uncle of the murdered King has seized the throne.

A cable dispatch from Yokohama states that out of 775 cases of cholera within twenty days at Yokohama 572 cases proved fatal. At Tokio about cases proved fatal and fifty deaths occur daily.

The Australian cricket team have beaten the All England Eleven at Kensington Oval.

Only six dead Arabs were found on the battle field at Ramess.

The Sultan of Turkey has accepted the military convention with Great Britain. A Constantinople correspondent explains his personal and diplomatic relations and his interest in the Egyptian question.

Swallowing Whisky Against Time.

In Ireland, a short time ago, a man backed himself with a five-pound note to drink six glasses of whisky within 60 seconds. He lost his wager—and his life. This person was a pork butcher named Fennessy, residing in Limerick City, who, it appears, had frequently demonstrated his peculiar capacity for drinking whisky against time. His last exhibition in this line was witnessed by a numerous company, and it is understood that a good deal of money changed hands over the event. Fennessy's luck, so far as whisky was concerned, was not very brilliant. He laid heavily on their man, who, they felt confident from his previous feats in swallowing a large quantity of strong liquor in a small space of time, would, as one of them expressed it, "get outside of six glasses of whisky faster than a cat could sneeze."

The champion fire-eater swallowed stripped to his shirt and trousers only, like most respectable men, he has become peculiarly the connection between the wearing of stockings and the swelling of half a dozen glasses of whisky in a minute is not quite obvious, but Fennessy removed his stockings before attacking the six glasses filled with home manufactured stuff, which were drawn up in a row before him on a table. A time-keeper with a watch having given the signal to begin by dropping a handkerchief on the floor, Fennessy commenced by swiftly emptied into the champion's stomach, and he was in the act of finishing the sixth after the others when he suddenly collapsed and rolled over heavily on the ground. When "times" was called he was found to be insensible, whereas there was some parliamentary language used by his backers, who felt that they were the victims of misplaced confidence. A surgeon with a stomach-pump arrived, but although a good deal of liquid was lifted out of the champion, he never recovered consciousness, and he died in a short time. The surgeon who made the post-mortem examination said the late lamented champion was so thoroughly saturated with whisky that if his body were subjected to the operation of a hydraulic press he was confident the liquid would be squeezed out of him like alcohol. The relatives of the champion, however, declined to allow this interesting experiment to be made in the interest of science; the coroner's jury took the word of the surgeon for what it said in the champion's system were almost wholly composed of whisky, and they found that he died of alcoholic poisoning.

A Put Up Job.

By a really clever piece of detective work, the detectives have solved the mystery of the Kansas Bank robbery. It will be remembered that on August 13 two men, who had "left a catchel" in the bank, called for it late in the afternoon, while Cashier Pratt and his assistant, Miss Palmer, were "making up the cash." The two men were armed, and after locking them in the vault, made up the cash themselves to the sum of $20,000, and departed. Pratt and Miss Palmer got out, "after working over a hour." Neither of them had any very good description of the robbers, and the likelihood of discovery and capture seemed very slender. But on Saturday Edward Welch, "traveler for a Boston dry goods store," arrested in a village in Chequamegon County, and on Monday the second man was caught in the person of James S. Scott, a St. Louis dentist. It then appeared that Cashier Pratt was in the "deal," and his arrest on Tuesday completed the work, since Miss Palmer, who had been hooked "almost into a state of insensibility," is exempt from any suspicion. The plan to rob the bank, which "was formed about a year ago," it now appears was preceded by a successful forgery, through which the bank was defrauded of $5,000 by the same conspirators. The cashier and his friends are not reported as especially eminent in local society, which is nearly as great a surprise as the rapid and effective work of the detectives.

Advice to Young Ladies.

Be industrious, daughter. Thus the best women have ever found the best husbands. Rebecca went to the well to water the camels and caught Israel's matrimonial agent. Rachel went out with the sheep and found Jacob and his kins waiting for her. Her wrought in the wheat field and married Isaac. Abigail lusted around and baked 200 loaves of bread, and loaded up a whole company's train which she personally led out to David, and got a second husband within a week after her first one was petrified, and if you persistently buckle down to a washbowl, you feel assured that no man will marry you for your money.—Burlington Hawkeye.

GENIUS CAN NEVER DESPISE LABOR.—Abel Stevens.

AFAIRS IN EGYPT.

What is Being Done by the English Government in Africa.

General Wolsley's advance into the interior of Egypt has been stopped by the Egyptian Army near the village of Magdha. Several officers were wounded in an engagement which lasted three all day Thursday. The water in the fresh water canal at Ismailia is constantly falling. It is reported from Alexandria that 5,000 Egyptian troops have gone to Tel-el-Kebir. The British have occupied Damietta, in which town several prisoners are alleged to have been found loaded with chains. The Nile continues rapidly rising. The Nile continues rapidly rising. The Nile continues rapidly rising.

It is rumored that Arabi Pasha accuses M. de Lesseps of having deceived the Egyptian Government, and that he is able to sell the Suez Canal to the English, and that Arabi has set a price on M. de Lesseps's head.

The Daily Telegraph has the following from Alexandria:—"We captured the spy and his hands were over to the native authorities, who tortured him with thumb-screws and ordered him to be shot. He said Arabi Pasha has only a strong regiment of artillery, 2,000 cavalry, and a few musketeers, and is now proceeding during the past few nights with Arabi Pasha, but we have been unable to discover who is sending the signals."

Only six dead Arabs were found on the battle field at Ramess.

The Sultan of Turkey has accepted the military convention with Great Britain. A Constantinople correspondent explains his personal and diplomatic relations and his interest in the Egyptian question.

Swallowing Whisky Against Time.

In Ireland, a short time ago, a man backed himself with a five-pound note to drink six glasses of whisky within 60 seconds. He lost his wager—and his life. This person was a pork butcher named Fennessy, residing in Limerick City, who, it appears, had frequently demonstrated his peculiar capacity for drinking whisky against time. His last exhibition in this line was witnessed by a numerous company, and it is understood that a good deal of money changed hands over the event. Fennessy's luck, so far as whisky was concerned, was not very brilliant. He laid heavily on their man, who, they felt confident from his previous feats in swallowing a large quantity of strong liquor in a small space of time, would, as one of them expressed it, "get outside of six glasses of whisky faster than a cat could sneeze."

The champion fire-eater swallowed stripped to his shirt and trousers only, like most respectable men, he has become peculiarly the connection between the wearing of stockings and the swelling of half a dozen glasses of whisky in a minute is not quite obvious, but Fennessy removed his stockings before attacking the six glasses filled with home manufactured stuff, which were drawn up in a row before him on a table. A time-keeper with a watch having given the signal to begin by dropping a handkerchief on the floor, Fennessy commenced by swiftly emptied into the champion's stomach, and he was in the act of finishing the sixth after the others when he suddenly collapsed and rolled over heavily on the ground. When "times" was called he was found to be insensible, whereas there was some parliamentary language used by his backers, who felt that they were the victims of misplaced confidence. A surgeon with a stomach-pump arrived, but although a good deal of liquid was lifted out of the champion, he never recovered consciousness, and he died in a short time. The surgeon who made the post-mortem examination said the late lamented champion was so thoroughly saturated with whisky that if his body were subjected to the operation of a hydraulic press he was confident the liquid would be squeezed out of him like alcohol. The relatives of the champion, however, declined to allow this interesting experiment to be made in the interest of science; the coroner's jury took the word of the surgeon for what it said in the champion's system were almost wholly composed of whisky, and they found that he died of alcoholic poisoning.

A Put Up Job.

By a really clever piece of detective work, the detectives have solved the mystery of the Kansas Bank robbery. It will be remembered that on August 13 two men, who had "left a catchel" in the bank, called for it late in the afternoon, while Cashier Pratt and his assistant, Miss Palmer, were "making up the cash." The two men were armed, and after locking them in the vault, made up the cash themselves to the sum of $20,000, and departed. Pratt and Miss Palmer got out, "after working over a hour." Neither of them had any very good description of the robbers, and the likelihood of discovery and capture seemed very slender. But on Saturday Edward Welch, "traveler for a Boston dry goods store," arrested in a village in Chequamegon County, and on Monday the second man was caught in the person of James S. Scott, a St. Louis dentist. It then appeared that Cashier Pratt was in the "deal," and his arrest on Tuesday completed the work, since Miss Palmer, who had been hooked "almost into a state of insensibility," is exempt from any suspicion. The plan to rob the bank, which "was formed about a year ago," it now appears was preceded by a successful forgery, through which the bank was defrauded of $5,000 by the same conspirators. The cashier and his friends are not reported as especially eminent in local society, which is nearly as great a surprise as the rapid and effective work of the detectives.

Advice to Young Ladies.

Be industrious, daughter. Thus the best women have ever found the best husbands. Rebecca went to the well to water the camels and caught Israel's matrimonial agent. Rachel went out with the sheep and found Jacob and his kins waiting for her. Her wrought in the wheat field and married Isaac. Abigail lusted around and baked 200 loaves of bread, and loaded up a whole company's train which she personally led out to David, and got a second husband within a week after her first one was petrified, and if you persistently buckle down to a washbowl, you feel assured that no man will marry you for your money.—Burlington Hawkeye.

GENIUS CAN NEVER DESPISE LABOR.—Abel Stevens.

AFAIRS IN EGYPT.

What is Being Done by the English Government in Africa.

General Wolsley's advance into the interior of Egypt has been stopped by the Egyptian Army near the village of Magdha. Several officers were wounded in an engagement which lasted three all day Thursday. The water in the fresh water canal at Ismailia is constantly falling. It is reported from Alexandria that 5,000 Egyptian troops have gone to Tel-el-Kebir. The British have occupied Damietta, in which town several prisoners are alleged to have been found loaded with chains. The Nile continues rapidly rising. The Nile continues rapidly rising. The Nile continues rapidly rising.

It is rumored that Arabi Pasha accuses M. de Lesseps of having deceived the Egyptian Government, and that he is able to sell the Suez Canal to the English, and that Arabi has set a price on M. de Lesseps's head.

The Daily Telegraph has the following from Alexandria:—"We captured the spy and his hands were over to the native authorities, who tortured him with thumb-screws and ordered him to be shot. He said Arabi Pasha has only a strong regiment of artillery, 2,000 cavalry, and a few musketeers, and is now proceeding during the past few nights with Arabi Pasha, but we have been unable to discover who is sending the signals."

Only six dead Arabs were found on the battle field at Ramess.

The Sultan of Turkey has accepted the military convention with Great Britain. A Constantinople correspondent explains his personal and diplomatic relations and his interest in the Egyptian question.

Swallowing Whisky Against Time.

In Ireland, a short time ago, a man backed himself with a five-pound note to drink six glasses of whisky within 60 seconds. He lost his wager—and his life. This person was a pork butcher named Fennessy, residing in Limerick City, who, it appears, had frequently demonstrated his peculiar capacity for drinking whisky against time. His last exhibition in this line was witnessed by a numerous company, and it is understood that a good deal of money changed hands over the event. Fennessy's luck, so far as whisky was concerned, was not very brilliant. He laid heavily on their man, who, they felt confident from his previous feats in swallowing a large quantity of strong liquor in a small space of time, would, as one of them expressed it, "get outside of six glasses of whisky faster than a cat could sneeze."

The champion fire-eater swallowed stripped to his shirt and trousers only, like most respectable men, he has become peculiarly the connection between the wearing of stockings and the swelling of half a dozen glasses of whisky in a minute is not quite obvious, but Fennessy removed his stockings before attacking the six glasses filled with home manufactured stuff, which were drawn up in a row before him on a table. A time-keeper with a watch having given the signal to begin by dropping a handkerchief on the floor, Fennessy commenced by swiftly emptied into the champion's stomach, and he was in the act of finishing the sixth after the others when he suddenly collapsed and rolled over heavily on the ground. When "times" was called he was found to be insensible, whereas there was some parliamentary language used by his backers, who felt that they were the victims of misplaced confidence. A surgeon with a stomach-pump arrived, but although a good deal of liquid was lifted out of the champion, he never recovered consciousness, and he died in a short time. The surgeon who made the post-mortem examination said the late lamented champion was so thoroughly saturated with whisky that if his body were subjected to the operation of a hydraulic press he was confident the liquid would be squeezed out of him like alcohol. The relatives of the champion, however, declined to allow this interesting experiment to be made in the interest of science; the coroner's jury took the word of the surgeon for what it said in the champion's system were almost wholly composed of whisky, and they found that he died of alcoholic poisoning.

A Put Up Job.

By a really clever piece of detective work, the detectives have solved the mystery of the Kansas Bank robbery. It will be remembered that on August 13 two men, who had "left a catchel" in the bank, called for it late in the afternoon, while Cashier Pratt and his assistant, Miss Palmer, were "making up the cash." The two men were armed, and after locking them in the vault, made up the cash themselves to the sum of $20,000, and departed. Pratt and Miss Palmer got out, "after working over a hour." Neither of them had any very good description of the robbers, and the likelihood of discovery and capture seemed very slender. But on Saturday Edward Welch, "traveler for a Boston dry goods store," arrested in a village in Chequamegon County, and on Monday the second man was caught in the person of James S. Scott, a St. Louis dentist. It then appeared that Cashier Pratt was in the "deal," and his arrest on Tuesday completed the work, since Miss Palmer, who had been hooked "almost into a state of insensibility," is exempt from any suspicion. The plan to rob the bank, which "was formed about a year ago," it now appears was preceded by a successful forgery, through which the bank was defrauded of $5,000 by the same conspirators. The cashier and his friends are not reported as especially eminent in local society, which is nearly as great a surprise as the rapid and effective work of the detectives.

Advice to Young Ladies.

Be industrious, daughter. Thus the best women have ever found the best husbands. Rebecca went to the well to water the camels and caught Israel's matrimonial agent. Rachel went out with the sheep and found Jacob and his kins waiting for her. Her wrought in the wheat field and married Isaac. Abigail lusted around and baked 200 loaves of bread, and loaded up a whole company's train which she personally led out to David, and got a second husband within a week after her first one was petrified, and if you persistently buckle down to a washbowl, you feel assured that no man will marry you for your money.—Burlington Hawkeye.

GENIUS CAN NEVER DESPISE LABOR.—Abel Stevens.

AFAIRS IN EGYPT.

What is Being Done by the English Government in Africa.

General Wolsley's advance into the interior of Egypt has been stopped by the Egyptian Army near the village of Magdha. Several officers were wounded in an engagement which lasted three all day Thursday. The water in the fresh water canal at Ismailia is constantly falling. It is reported from Alexandria that 5,000 Egyptian troops have gone to Tel-el-Kebir. The British have occupied Damietta, in which town several prisoners are alleged to have been found loaded with chains. The Nile continues rapidly rising. The Nile continues rapidly rising. The Nile continues rapidly rising.

It is rumored that Arabi Pasha accuses M. de Lesseps of having deceived the Egyptian Government, and that he is able to sell the Suez Canal to the English, and that Arabi has set a price on M. de Lesseps's head.

The Daily Telegraph has the following from Alexandria:—"We captured the spy and his hands were over to the native authorities, who tortured him with thumb-screws and ordered him to be shot. He said Arabi Pasha has only a strong regiment of artillery, 2,000 cavalry, and a few musketeers, and is now proceeding during the past few nights with Arabi Pasha, but we have been unable to discover who is sending the signals."

Only six dead Arabs were found on the battle field at Ramess.

The Sultan of Turkey has accepted the military convention with Great Britain. A Constantinople correspondent explains his personal and diplomatic relations and his interest in the Egyptian question.

Swallowing Whisky Against Time.

In Ireland, a short time ago, a man backed himself with a five-pound note to drink six glasses of whisky within 60 seconds. He lost his wager—and his life. This person was a pork butcher named Fennessy, residing in Limerick City, who, it appears, had frequently demonstrated his peculiar capacity for drinking whisky against time. His last exhibition in this line was witnessed by a numerous company, and it is understood that a good deal of money changed hands over the event. Fennessy's luck, so far as whisky was concerned, was not very brilliant. He laid heavily on their man, who, they felt confident from his previous feats in swallowing a large quantity of strong liquor in a small space of time, would, as one of them expressed it, "get outside of six glasses of whisky faster than a cat could sneeze."

The champion fire-eater swallowed stripped to his shirt and trousers only, like most respectable men, he has become peculiarly the connection between the wearing of stockings and the swelling of half a dozen glasses of whisky in a minute is not quite obvious, but Fennessy removed his stockings before attacking the six glasses filled with home manufactured stuff, which were drawn up in a row before him on a table. A time-keeper with a watch having given the signal to begin by dropping a handkerchief on the floor, Fennessy commenced by swiftly emptied into the champion's stomach, and he was in the act of finishing the sixth after the others when he suddenly collapsed and rolled over heavily on the ground. When "times" was called he was found to be insensible, whereas there was some parliamentary language used by his backers, who felt that they were the victims of misplaced confidence. A surgeon with a stomach-pump arrived, but although a good deal of liquid was lifted out of the champion, he never recovered consciousness, and he died in a short time. The surgeon who made the post-mortem examination said the late lamented champion was so thoroughly saturated with whisky that if his body were subjected to the operation of a hydraulic press he was confident the liquid would be squeezed out of him like alcohol. The relatives of the champion, however, declined to allow this interesting experiment to be made in the interest of science; the coroner's jury took the word of the surgeon for what it said in the champion's system were almost wholly composed of whisky, and they found that he died of alcoholic poisoning.

A Put Up Job.

By a really clever piece of detective work, the detectives have solved the mystery of the Kansas Bank robbery. It will be remembered that on August 13 two men, who had "left a catchel" in the bank, called for it late in the afternoon, while Cashier Pratt and his assistant, Miss Palmer, were "making up the cash." The two men were armed, and after locking them in the vault, made up the cash themselves to the sum of $20,000, and departed. Pratt and Miss Palmer got out, "after working over a hour." Neither of them had any very good description of the robbers, and the likelihood of discovery and capture seemed very slender. But on Saturday Edward Welch, "traveler for a Boston dry goods store," arrested in a village in Chequamegon County, and on Monday the second man was caught in the person of James S. Scott, a St. Louis dentist. It then appeared that Cashier Pratt was in the "deal," and his arrest on Tuesday completed the work, since Miss Palmer, who had been hooked "almost into a state of insensibility," is exempt from any suspicion. The plan to rob the bank, which "was formed about a year ago," it now appears was preceded by a successful forgery, through which the bank was defrauded of $5,000 by the same conspirators. The cashier and his friends are not reported as especially eminent in local society, which is nearly as great a surprise as the rapid and effective work of the detectives.

Advice to Young Ladies.

Be industrious, daughter. Thus the best women have ever found the best husbands. Rebecca went to the well to water the camels and caught Israel's matrimonial agent. Rachel went out with the sheep and found Jacob and his kins waiting for her. Her wrought in the wheat field and married Isaac. Abigail lusted around and baked 200 loaves of bread, and loaded up a whole company's train which she personally led out to David, and got a second husband within a week after her first one was petrified, and if you persistently buckle down to a washbowl, you feel assured that no man will marry you for your money.—Burlington Hawkeye.

GENIUS CAN NEVER DESPISE LABOR.—Abel Stevens.

AFAIRS IN EGYPT.

What is Being Done by the English Government in Africa.

General Wolsley's advance into the interior of Egypt has been stopped by the Egyptian Army near the village of Magdha. Several officers were wounded in an engagement which lasted three all day Thursday. The water in the fresh water canal at Ismailia is constantly falling. It is reported from Alexandria that 5,000 Egyptian troops have gone to Tel-el-Kebir. The British have occupied Damietta, in which town several prisoners are alleged to have been found loaded with chains. The Nile continues rapidly rising. The Nile continues rapidly rising. The Nile continues rapidly rising.

It is rumored that Arabi Pasha accuses M. de Lesseps of having deceived the Egyptian Government, and that he is able to sell the Suez Canal to the English, and that Arabi has set a price on M. de Lesseps's head.

The Daily Telegraph has the following from Alexandria:—"We captured the spy and his hands were over to the native authorities, who tortured him with thumb-screws and ordered him to be shot. He said Arabi Pasha has only a strong regiment of artillery, 2,000 cavalry, and a few musketeers, and is now proceeding during the past few nights with Arabi Pasha, but we have been unable to discover who is sending the signals."

Only six dead Arabs were found on the battle field at Ramess.

The Sultan of Turkey has accepted the military convention with Great Britain. A Constantinople correspondent explains his personal and diplomatic relations and his interest in the Egyptian question.

Swallowing Whisky Against Time.

In Ireland, a short time ago, a man backed himself with a five-pound note to drink six glasses of whisky within 60 seconds. He lost his wager—and his life. This person was a pork butcher named Fennessy, residing in Limerick City, who, it appears, had frequently demonstrated his peculiar capacity for drinking whisky against time. His last exhibition in this line was witnessed by a numerous company, and it is understood that a good deal of money changed hands over the event. Fennessy's luck, so far as whisky was concerned, was not very brilliant. He laid heavily on their man, who, they felt confident from his previous feats in swallowing a large quantity of strong liquor in a small space of time, would, as one of them expressed it, "get outside of six glasses of whisky faster than a cat could sneeze."

The champion fire-eater swallowed stripped to his shirt and trousers only, like most respectable men, he has become peculiarly the connection between the wearing of stockings and the swelling of half a dozen glasses of whisky in a minute is not quite obvious, but Fennessy removed his stockings before attacking the six glasses filled with home manufactured stuff, which were drawn up in a row before him on a table. A time-keeper with a watch having given the signal to begin by dropping a handkerchief on the floor, Fennessy commenced by swiftly emptied into the champion's stomach, and he was in the act of finishing the sixth after the others when he suddenly collapsed and rolled over heavily on the ground. When "times" was called he was found to be insensible, whereas there was some parliamentary language used by his backers, who felt that they were the victims of misplaced confidence. A surgeon with a stomach-pump arrived, but although a good deal of liquid was lifted out of the champion, he never recovered consciousness, and he died in a short time. The surgeon who made the post-mortem examination said the late lamented champion was so thoroughly saturated with whisky that if his body were subjected to the operation of a hydraulic press he was confident the liquid would be squeezed out of him like alcohol. The relatives of the champion, however, declined to allow this interesting experiment to be made in the interest of science; the coroner's jury took the word of the surgeon for what it said in the champion's system were almost wholly composed of whisky, and they found that he died of alcoholic poisoning.

A Put Up Job.

By a really clever piece of detective work, the detectives have solved the mystery of the Kansas Bank robbery. It will be remembered that on August 13 two men, who had "left a catchel" in the bank, called for it late in the afternoon, while Cashier Pratt and his assistant, Miss Palmer, were "making up the cash." The two men were armed, and after locking them in the vault, made up the cash themselves to the sum of $20,000, and departed. Pratt and Miss Palmer got out, "after working over a hour." Neither of them had any very good description of the robbers, and the likelihood of discovery and capture seemed very slender. But on Saturday Edward Welch, "traveler for a Boston dry goods store," arrested in a village in Chequamegon County, and on Monday the second man was caught in the person of James S. Scott, a St. Louis dentist. It then appeared that Cashier Pratt was in the "deal," and his arrest on Tuesday completed the work, since Miss Palmer, who had been hooked "almost into a state of insensibility," is exempt from any suspicion. The plan to rob the bank, which "was formed about a year ago," it now appears was preceded by a successful forgery, through which the bank was defrauded of $5,000 by the same conspirators. The cashier and his friends are not reported as especially eminent in local society, which is nearly as great a surprise as the rapid and effective work of the detectives.

Advice to Young Ladies.

Be industrious, daughter. Thus the best women have ever found the best husbands. Rebecca went to the well to water the camels and caught Israel's matrimonial agent. Rachel went out with the sheep and found Jacob and his kins waiting for her. Her wrought in the wheat field and married Isaac. Abigail lusted around and baked 200 loaves of bread, and loaded up a whole company's train which she personally led out to David, and got a second husband within a week after her first one was petrified, and if you persistently buckle down to a washbowl, you feel assured that no man will marry you for your money.—Burlington Hawkeye.

GENIUS CAN NEVER DESPISE LABOR.—Abel Stevens.

AFAIRS IN EGYPT.

What is Being Done by the English Government in Africa.

General Wolsley's advance into the interior of Egypt has been stopped by the Egyptian Army near the village of Magdha. Several officers were wounded in an engagement which lasted three all day Thursday. The water in the fresh water canal at Ismailia is constantly falling. It is reported from Alexandria that 5,000 Egyptian troops have gone to Tel-el-Kebir. The British have occupied Damietta, in which town several prisoners are alleged to have been found loaded with chains. The Nile continues rapidly rising. The Nile continues rapidly rising. The Nile continues rapidly rising.

It is rumored that Arabi Pasha accuses M. de Lesseps of having deceived the Egyptian Government, and that he is able to sell the Suez Canal to the English, and that Arabi has set a price on M. de Lesseps's head.

The Daily Telegraph has the following from Alexandria:—"We captured the spy and his hands were over to the native authorities, who tortured him with thumb-screws and ordered him to be shot. He said Arabi Pasha has only a strong regiment of artillery, 2,000 cavalry, and a few musketeers, and is now proceeding during the past few nights with Arabi Pasha, but we have been unable to discover who is sending the signals."

</